

FURNITURE IN THE CALHOUN MANSION.

Relic Room.

- 1 double leaf dining table, mahogany, 10 chairs (Calhoun)
(2 of these chairs in need of repairs; table in need of repairs)
- 1 piano - made in London (Mrs. John C. Calhoun)
- 1 Dolly Madison bureau-wardrobe - designed by Mrs. John C. Calhoun and made in Pendleton by Carnuff.
- 1 Italian marble top mahogany table (Mrs. John C. Calhoun)
- 1 Holmes chair (John C. Calhoun)
- 1 long hall table, marble top with gilt frame mirror (John C. Calhoun)
- 1 Windsor chair (Clemson-Washington)
- 1 low arm chair (John C. Calhoun)
- 2 end chairs for dining table (John C. Calhoun)
- 1 dining room buffet (John C. Calhoun)
- 2 upholstered arm chairs (Clemson bought in Belgium)
- 1 red velvet chair with foot rest (Given to Clemson by Leopold I of Belgium)
- 1 sofa from Washington (Clemson) (In need of repairs)
- 1 sword (Ransom Calhoun)
- Curtains, hangings, brass holders, papering in room (In use when John C. Calhoun occupied Mansion)
- 1 wooden shoe (Clemson brought from Holland)
- 1 fire bellows
- 2 busts of John C. Calhoun
- 1 picture of John C. Calhoun, in pine burr frame.
- 1 picture of U. S. Senate (Calhoun speaking)
- 1 animal skin (Given Calhoun by an Indian chief)